THE POLICE CONTROVERSY.

TRANSFERRED TO THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR SPEEDY DECISION.

A Remarkable Injunction-Speedy Applica-tion to Vacate it-Argument Mefore Judge Freedman - No Further Action in the Inter yet Taken by the Board of Police.

At twenty-five minutes past 10 yesterday morning, just previous to the hour fixed for the neeting of the Board of Police, Mr. Charles H. Trunx, attorney for Mr. John R. Voorhis, served President French with an injunction in the Buperlor Court suit, in which the summons and complaint were served upon Mr. French on Wednesday. This injunction, which re-strains the Police Commissioners from recognizing Gen. Smith, was signed by Judge Van Hoesen of the Court of Common Pleas, who claims authority to make orders in cases pending in the Superior Court, under section 772 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The injunction was as follows:

On the annexed affidavits and the summons and con plaint herein let the defendants show cause at a Special Term of this court to be held at the Court House, in the sity of New York, on the 15th day of July, 1880, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as counsel gan be heard, why they and each of them should not. pending this action, and until the further order of this Court, be restrained and enjoined from entertaining or proceeding to hear, determine, or act upon any claim which may be made by the defendant, William F. Smith to membership in the Board of Police Commissioners of the city of New York, or any claim on his part to the rights, powers, privileges, duties, or emoluments of Police Commissioner in the place and stend of the said John R. Voorhis, or under or by virtue of the original appointment of the said Wm. F. Smith as Police Commissioner, until the respective claims of the said John R. Voorhis and Wm. F. Smith to membership n the said Board and to the office of Commissioner o Police of the said city of New Tork shall have been heard and determined by some court of competent jurisdiction n some proceeding between the said Wm. F. Smith, or on his behalf, and the said John R. Voorhis, or in som occeeding to which both the said Smith and the said Voorhis shall have been parties; and why the defend-ants, Geo. W. Walling, Seth C. Hawley, and Wm. H. Eipp, shall not be restrained and enjoined, until the further order of the Court, from recognizing or ac-acknowledging or receiving orders from or yielding obedience to the said Wm. F. Smith as such Police Comnissioner until the contingency aforesaid shall have happened; and why all the defendants should not be restrained and enjoined from installing or admitting the said Wm. F. Smith into the office, or the rights, powers, privileges, or emoluments thereof, until the further order of this Court; and why the plaintiff should not have such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just. And in the mean time, and until the further order of the Court, all proceedings, and especially those above mentioned on the part of the defendants, and each of them, are stayed. Let a copy of this order and the papers on which it is founded be served on or before the 5th day

The papers in this suit by Mr. Voorhis were served upon Mr. French alone; none of the other Commissioners have received any.

Mr. Willard Bartlett, one of the counsel for Gen. Smith. and Mr. Elihu Root, counsel for Commissioner French, were present when the injunction was served. So, also, was Mr. Ecclethem, and Mr. Root and Mr. Bartlett subsequently visited the Court House, and applied to Judge Freedman for an order to show cause why the injunction should not be vacated. This order was in the following language:

Upon the order granted herein by the Hon. George & Van Hoesen on the 7th day of July, 1880, and the paper upon which the same was granted, it is ordered that the plaintiff, or his attorney, show cause before me at a Special Term of this court, at Chambers, in the Cour House, in the City of New York, on the 8th day of July 1880, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, why the said order should not be vacated and set uside, and why the defend ants should not have such other and further relief as may

At 2 o'clock, the hour designated for the return of the order, the parfies met before Judge Freedman in his room in the Court House. Mr. Eilhu Root appeared for Stephen B. French, the only defendant who had as yet been Willard Bartlett watched the case on be-

Mr. Willard Bartlett watched the case on behalf of Commissioner Smith.

Mr. Truax seked for an adjournment on the ground that he was not prepared; that he had made diligent but unsuccessful efforts to find ex-Judgo Fullerton and Mr. Bangs, his associates, but had falled, and he was totally unprepared to go on with the argument.

Mr. Boot called the attention of the Court to the fact that the motion to dissolve the injunction was not based on any new papers, but was simply on the same papers presented to Judge Van Hoesen upon which the injunction was simply on the same papers presented to Judge Van Hoesen upon which the injunction was van Hoesen upon which the injunction was granted.

"You want to take an advantage of Mr. Voorhis to compel him to go on now, when he is not represented," interposed Mr. Truax.

"I beg your pardon; he is sufficiently represented to day to stop the wheels of the Police Department and to prevent the Commissioners from performing their duties," said Mr. Root.

"If we had come here with additional papers, the counsel for Mr. Voorhis might say he was taken by surprise. But he is bound at any time to be ready to maintain the injunction he has obtained. He has enjoined all the Commission.

"If we had come here with additional papers, the counsel for Mr. Voorhis might say he was taken by surprise. But he is bound at any time to be ready to maintain the injunction he has obtained, He has enjoined all the Commissioners and their subordinates."

If on out want to argue the question now; I only want a postponement until I can have my associates present," said Mr. Truax.

Mr. Root proceeded with his argument, showing that the injunction procured from Judge Van Hoesen in effect prevented the Police Board from proceeding as they thought proper under the judgment of the Supreme Court annulling the removal of Gen. Smith. The proper course for Mr. Voorhis would have been to apply to the Supreme Court to limit the effect of its order if he did not like it.

Mr. Truax made another effort to secure a postponement of the argument.

Judge Freedman intimated that unless the sase was one that admitted of no doubthe might give counsel until Saturday to put in briefs.

Mr. Root thought a simple examination of the papers should be enough.

Mr. Bartlett hoped the Court would speedily yacate or modify the order of Judge Van Hoesen. Although not yet served on Gen. Smith, it already affected him indirectly. The proceeding by Gen. Smith to review his removal by certiorari. he said, "has been a matter of public notoriety for months. Mr. Truax, his client, and svery one who reads the newspapers in the city of New York, has known of it. They could have commenced this suit long ago. They did prepare the papers elx days ago. All their affidiavits were verified as long ago as July 2. They served the summons and complaint on Mr. French yesterday. Why not the injunction also? Presumably because they could not obtain it from any Judge of this court. But they finally did obtain it from & Judge of the State affords any precedent for the course of counsel in this respect. And now, after waiting until they knew the Board of Police was about to meet, and to meet with Gen. Smith, they serve their injunction on Dapers sworn to six days a Truax might dosire to submit, in addition to the oral argument, might be handed in before Saturday; but he thought he ought to hear counsel orally now.

Mr. Root then proceeded to argue that the Supreme Court has decided, and its decision is sustained by that of the Court of Appeals, that the proceedings of the Mayor in removing Gen. Smith and the other Police Commissioners, were absolutely null and void. "Gen. Smith is now." he said, "and since his original appointment always has been a Police Commissioner. Why is not Mr. Yoornis willing to submit to the Supreme Court; and why does he ask another court to interfere to protect him? I believe, as my friend Mr. Bartlett has just said, that this proceeding is unprecedented in the history of our jurisprudence. It is unprecedented to apply to a Judge of the Court of Common Pleasfor an order in a case pending in the Supreme Court. The submitted has been a court of the supreme Court. It was further argued that the papers on which the injunction was granted were defective in not showing that no other application for such order had been made to any other Judge. Counsel intimated that Mr. Truax had applied for this very injunction to Judge Freedman, who had refused it. Judge Van Hoesen asserted a right to make the order under section TTJ of the Code, but that section expressly prohibits him from so acting when the effect of his order would be, as it is here to stay proceedings under a decision of the Supreme Court. He therefore, had no jurisdiction to grant the injunction. The complaint showed precisely what damage Mr. Voorhis would suffer, if any, to wit, the loses of $5,000 a year, and this was by no means the sort of irreparable injury to prevent which a court of chancery could interfere. The liquinction was clearly one that ought to be varied, and without delay.

Mr. Truax replied that Mr. Voorhis was merely using his right to secure the Intervention of the Superior Court to prevent a wrong which was contemplated against him by the Police Commissioner, and cannot be granting of the order by Judge Van Horsen. He added that he had been called upon suddenly to argue the case, and had been occupied with other matters.

"Yes; after you had enjoined the Police Board you thought you would attend to something else," observed Mr. Bartlett.

Mr. Truax continued, saying that in the absence of his briefs he would take as his beat brief the opinion of Judge Neah Davis.

"That is the opinion in which Judge Davis reverses the Court of Appeals," suggested Mr. Bartlett.

"That is the opinion in which Judge Pays, reverses the Court of Appeals," Suggested Mr. Bartlett.

Mr. Truax suggested that Mesers, Boot and Barilett were so familiar with the law applicable to these cases that they were always prepared on any point connected with them.

Mr. Root replied: 'I have never conceived it possible that anybody should require preparation on the question whether an application could properly be made to one Judge for an injunction, and that being denied, that then an application could properly be made to another Judge for an order to show cause why an injunction should not be granted, with an injunction tacked to it." Mr. Root characterized the whole proceeding on the part of Mr. Voorbis as an effort to hank on by the cyclids for the purpose of getting a few months more salary.

Judge freedman, at the close of the argument, said: 'The merits involved in this matter are so important that it would be best not to determine them now. On the other hand, it is equally important that a satisfactory conclusion shall be reached upon the merits; that the case should not be disposed of solely and exclusively upon technical grounds. I will therefore take the papers, and reserve my decision until Saturday at 12 o'clock, and you may have until Saturday at 8 A. M. to send what briefs you desire to my house.' The court then adjourned.

M. BEAUPRE'S MISFORTUNE,

The Stupidity of a Bank Clerk Lands him in a Police Court. Edward Maricheau Beaupré, an elderly Frenchman, was arraigned yesterday morning before Justice Peloubet, in the First District Police Court of Jersey City, upon a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. From the evidence adduced at the examination, it ms that the defendant is a farmer who lives at Michigan, near Goshen, in this State. By the death of a relative in his native land he became entitled to a large sum of money. On the morning of the 4th inst. two letters from his agent in France arrived at his house. He opened them and found that each of them contained what he says he believed to be a bill of exchange on Brown Bros. for $1,000 in his favor. He took the bills to the bank in Goshen and presented them to the cashier, who, on the strength of Beaupre's credit, accepted both of them and gave in exchange two certificates of deposit; one for $1,000 and the other for $900, and the sum of $100 in money.

After the Frenchman had departed the cashier discovered that one of the drafts was the duplicate of the other, and that they were the first and second of exchange respectively. He had therefore credited Beaupré with $1,000 more than the paper represented. The clerk called upon Constable Landy, who learned that the farmer had started for New York, and advised Chief of Police Murphy to detain him at the station of the New York, Lake Eric and Western Railroad in Jersey City. Detective Brown arrested Beaupré and took him before the police magistrate.

The accused man protested that he had acted ignorantly, and consented to return to Goshen with the constable. morning of the 4th inst. two letters from his Long Island's Forest Fires.

The fire which raged in the Long Island woods, east of Riverhead, on Wednesdar and Friday last, burned out on Saturday, having destroyed 1,200 acres of valuable timber. The fire is said to have originated in valuable timber. The fire is said to have originated in a hay lot, where two Germans were working. They had a dispute as to the ownership of the hay, and one of them set fire to it. For two days and nights the farmers at Capture on the original of the fire to save their dwellings and crops, and many narrow escapes are reported, in a subject of the fire to save their dwellings and crops, and many narrow escapes are reported, wood, was hemmed in by a back fire that had been started, and was obliged to drive his team into the river. For miles ahead of the fire the road was filled with snakes and land turtles making for the river.
